Handsome Trophy For Fair Series Winner Is Put on Display

In the window of the Wailuku Hardware Company, there is on exhibition a handsome and suitably engraved silver cup, the trophy for which the baseball teams of Maui, Waikiki and the Army will contend next week. It is offered by T. H. Davies & Co., Ltd., and is well worth contending for.

The uncertainty of the Hilo team's coming to Maui made necessary a change in program and the All-Army team has been invited to replace the Hilo contingent for the series to be played at the County Fair. The schedule now stands as follows:

October 21—Waikiki vs. All-Army, first game, a. m.

Maui vs. All-Army, second game, p. m.

October 22—Maui vs. Waikiki, first game, a. m.

All-Army vs. Waikiki, second game, p. m.

October 23—Maui vs. Army, first game, a. m.

Maui vs. vs. Waikiki, second game, p. m.

October 24—Winners of series against, picked team from the two losing factions, p. m.

The West Cajoot was opposite the highhouse buoy, the Mikiala towing, and the Mikiala just hooking up at the stern to shift the freighter to the drydock. Just then the Claudine steamed up the harbor. Although Captain Self, has made the turn at the buoy hundreds of times and often with a vessel just entering there, this time there was insufficient room. It was necessary to give the buoy a wide berth and this crowded him over to the West Cajoot. The Claudine slid under the bow of the West Cajoot and straightening, started for the stern. The Mikiala speeded sternwards and got out of the way.

The Claudine careened at a dangerous angle and then righted.

TENNIS AT PUUNENE

Entries have opened, it was announced yesterday, for a mixed doubles tennis tournament for the H. P. Baldwin cup. The tournament is to be held on Puunene courts, entries are to be made with Ed Walsh of Puunene, chairman of the tennis committee of the Puunene Athletic Club, and will close October 28. The entry fee is $1.50 for each team entering.

Maui Woman's Club

The study department of Maui Woman's Club met in the home service rooms at Kahului at 9:30 o'clock Saturday morning, and drill in parliamentary law and practice was had with Miss Phillips of Maui High School in charge. Mrs. W. A. Baldwin and Mrs. John T. Moir also took prominent parts. For some time to come the department will devote practically its entire time to parliamentary law which it finds to be a broad subject and those who are most proficient will be developed into presiding officers.

Monday afternoon at the Kahului Theater the club held its first political meeting, essentially non-partisan since candidates on both tickets were heard. Mrs. Linton, president of the club, presided.

Next Monday at 3 o'clock there will be a meeting of the humane department in the House Service rooms at Kahului. There is much work before the department even at the outset of the year and it is believed it will play one of the most prominent parts in club affairs, especially before and during the special session of the legislature.

A meeting of the Music department is scheduled for 2 o'clock next Thursday.

Makawao Ladies Aid Society will hold its annual bazaar in Paia Community House October 29.

SUB FLEET COMING

Advices which reached officials of the Kahului Railroad Co. on Thursday said that a fleet of four submarines and a tender will be in Kahului harbor next week at the time of the fair. It is estimated there will be between 80 and 100 men in the visiting fleet.

CAPACITY HOUSE IS AT OPENING OF HIPPODROME

To a capacity house the Hippodrome opened Wednesday evening, and a practically capacity house was there again last evening.

In entering on occupancy of the theater and during the rush of getting in seats the stage had not been properly prepared for such a number as Miss Lois Cooper was to present. It had been oiled before having been properly scoured so that artistic dancing was impossible and preparation for lights to be thrown on the dancer had not been made.

Miss Cooper appeared at the Kahului theater last evening and was able to render a number that showed the reputation she has won in Honolulu and in Hilo was well deserved.

Entries For Races High in Class and Cards Well Filled

Entries for the races have surpassed the expectation of officials in number and in quality and a racing program at the Fair that will keep horse flesh lovers on the alert is assured. Such horses as Waimea, Copra, Gold Bryan, Knight of Glyn, Mary J., Dreamery, Clara Martin, Indian Spring, Dinner Bell, Custeney, Sea Ridge and Bondero are among the entrants.

On Thursday, besides the Army's Roman race there are four races with four, five and six entries in them respectively. On Friday there are four events on the card with four, five and seven contestants. Four events make the Saturday card the smallest field being four and the largest being nine.

It is a fine bunch of animals and the events are so varied as to furnish a splendid afternoon of sport each day of the fair.

SOCCER

Soccer championship hinges on the result of the game that will be played tomorrow between the Alexander House Gym and the Puunene teams. The former has a game the best of it thus far in the season and should it win its next game it will have the championship cinched but a defeat will mean a tie. A hard well played contest is on the tapis and should draw out soccer fans to the limit. The two teams are the ones selected to demonstrate the fine points of soccer to Fair visitors next week.

Juniors Play Fast

Once again has Carl Rose's Wailuku Company Team shown that it is a "hummer" as well as a corner. By a 1-0 score, which, by the way, is the second time it has taken the bacon by those figures, the Sugar Company boys copped the contest with the Junior Gyms. It now leads its league with three wins and one defeat, having lost its initial game only.

WACS ELECT OFFICERS

Officers were elected for the coming year at an enthusiastic meeting of the Wailuku Athletic Club held Wednesday evening. The club officers, for the year are: Wendell E. Crockett, president; Dr. Ting, vice-president; Jose De Rego, secretary; J. Corien, treasurer and Harvey Cornwell, sergeant at arms. George Cummings was re-elected manager of the baseball team.

Several affairs were planned in their honor during the week; besides two or three dinners Mrs. Marshall was the complimented luncheon guest of Mrs. George Holland and Mrs. Lawrin Ingels on Thursday at Fort Kamehameha and again today of Mrs. Edward Dekum at the Country Club.

LAHAINA WINS

On the Paia courts last Saturday, net experts from Lahaina defeated the home players 13 matches to 5. The score by sets was as follows:

Collins and Gannon vs. Lindsay and MacLaren, 6-5; Bruce and Lufkin vs. W. A. Baldwin and Sutton, 6-4; Phelps and Campbell vs. Richardson and Hebert, 6-1; Winship and Lyman vs. Rolph and Wm. HOLLYWOOD LOADS PINES

Blue clad sailors were much in evidence in Kahului and Wailuku this week. They were on shore leave from the training ship Hollywood which has been loading canned pines. She took some on at Port Allen and at Kaanapali before coming to Kahului.

An Open Letter To Maui Residents

Hawaiian Banana Plantations, Ltd.

James Campbell Building

Honolulu, T. H.

October 11, 1920.

The Saturday Evening Post, in a recent editorial suggested that, if the reliable and legitimate enterprises of the country would take a lesson from the get-rich-quick promoters, and, forgetting their dignity, adopt some of the methods of these individuals in raising the capital necessary for legitimate industry, a large part of the money which now flows into the coffers of this gentry would become available for the development of legitimate and necessary industries, to the benefit of both the industries and the investors.

Now, I am going to try this out. We have sat in our dignity and written ads and supplied information concerning the Hawaiian Banana Plantations until probably half the newspaper readers are tired of reading about it; the other half perhaps has said "This ought to be a good thing if it can be carried out," but not enough, yet, have come through and taken the only action that can enable us to carry it out. In other words, we have not yet the capital we need to "put it over" right. And unless it can be done right, it had better not be done at all.

Now, I am adopting the suggestion of the Saturday Evening Post, and sending a salesman to Maui to make a personal canvass for the capital to establish this industry and carry it on until it can pay dividends. When last on Maui I saw a gentleman who was selling lots in Oakland, and believe you have nearly always with you someone selling something equally attractive and equally far away. Mr. W. G. Powell is coming to you with a clean record, to personally place the Banana proposition before you, answer your questions, and give you all the information you desire concerning the undertaking, and enable you, with the minimum of effort on your part, to decide on this investment.

He is unknown to you, and is coming frankly as a stock salesman. In so coming, he is under the handicap of the usual attitude of the average person toward the "stock salesman." But, he is coming on the suggestion of the editorial quoted, representing a legitimate and sound home industry, the further development of which will greatly benefit the Territory and the profits in which will stand the most rigid comparison with those of sugar and pineapples at their best.

Mr. Powell is a member of the Honolulu Chamber of Commerce, and the enterprise which he represents has the approval of that body.

He will be at the Grand Hotel, Wailuku, from October 13 to October 20.

W. A. ANDERSON,
